Strategy During Loan Term

The current owners of The Marlbank Inn (in their 70s) are selling due to retirement having run the business for approx 4 years. The business generates income through the bar/restaurant and 4 en-suite rooms. The turnover is approx £350k with the accounts are showing a loss of £40,000 (very limited accounts). There was planning obtained for 4 further rooms which has since lapsed.

The business plan:

- 1) Restructure the current business to allow for greater operational efficiency
- 2) Increase the food trade - Ajmail works with a credible chef at his current establishment who will assist with a new menu
- 3) Get the PP reinstated for further rooms to be added

Lender Risks	Mitigant	Risk Level
Risk that the management of the Borrower is not able to execute their business plan.	The Applicant has significant property investment and development experience while his son has experience in the catering/hospitality sector. While the purchase is of an existing pub/restaurant, this is a new venture for the management team, so certainly not without risk. However, on paper the team have the credentials necessary to make the investment successful.	Medium
Risk that the Borrower stops making monthly interest payments to Lenders due to loss of lease income and or tenants whose leases had ended, had exercised a lease break or have gone into receivership.	Both tenants are committed to the current leases for longer the facility being extended. In addition, a 6 month interest reserve provides cover for any interest payments that need to be met should either tenant fail to make the required payments under their lease arrangements.	Medium
Risk that the Borrower is unable to repay the loan principal at the end of the loan term because they have not been able to sell or re-finance the property.	Holding a first legal charge secured over the Site, registered with the Land Registry and Companies House, enables Proplend Security Limited to appoint solicitors and/or a receiver to repossess the Site, sell it and execute any other security held from the borrower. Default interest is charged during the period of default.	Medium
Risk that the Property falls in value due to either macroeconomic or property specific reasons	The value of the Subject properties would have to fall by 30% before the total value would fall below the outstanding loan sum. Proplend Security Limited maintains a panel of experienced valuers who must have adequate professional indemnity insurance to provide property valuations.	Medium
