Property Details

The Subject Property comprises the leasehold interest in two office suites, situated on the ground and lower ground floors of a five/six storey middle of terrace building.

The upper parts comprise of three self-contained flats which are sold on separate long leasehold interest and do not form part of our security.

The building is judged to have been constructed circa 1900s. Each floor has self-contained access to the front of the building.

The main walls of the subject property are assumed to be of solid brickwork construction, with rendered elevations, beneath an assumed flat roof. There no views of the roofs owing to the height and configuration of the building.

Floors throughout the building are of a mixture of solid concrete and suspended timber construction.

Natural lighting and ventilation is provided by timber framed plate glass shop frontages, double glazed timber framed windows to the ground floor rear and a single glazed timber framed lean to roof to the rear of the lower ground floor.

Location Report

The Subject Property is located along the southern side off Hoxton Square, close to its junction with Hoxton Street, within Shoreditch (London Borough of Hackney); a typical high density inner London district situated just north of the City of London and approximately three miles east of the West End/Oxford Street.

The area is home to a diverse range of media and creative businesses and also benefits from reasonably good demand from both the rental and vacant possession sectors due to being situated on the fringe of the “Square Mile” (Financial district of Central London) and within close proximity to the Central London employment markets and good infrastructure links.

The immediate vicinity comprises office and retail occupiers, together with bars/restaurants and medium to high density private residential accommodation. Comprehensive retailing and leisure facilities including local and national multiples can be found nearby along Shoreditch High Street (A10) and within London’s West End.

Away from the commercial areas, the surrounding locality represents a “medium to high value” residential district, comprising properties of varying style and character, many of which have been the subject of flat conversion schemes targeted at the middle level income groups.

Key road communication links include City Road (A501), which to the west provides links to the West End/Oxford Street/A40. Shoreditch Road (A10) to the north provides links to north London suburbs. The nearby A13 to the east provides links to Canary Warf/Docklands.

Hoxton and Shoreditch High Street London Overground Stations are both located nearby. Numerous bus routes serve the surrounding area.

Tenant Commentary

Currently, the sole tenant is Space Station London Limited. The 15-year lease commenced in March 2017 with a rental of £98,000 per annum.

Space Station London Limited is the Borrower's associated business and was founded in 1997. They operate as a specialist estate agency - both residential and commercial; in the UK and also internationally. The Company has a credit rating of A with CreditSafe.

Business Plan During Loan Term

The Subject Property is fully let as above to the Borrower's associated business.

The Borrower is also in discussions with a new tenant, who will occupy the premises at a rental of £100k p.a.

The new tenant Dagmar Design Ltd, who are an established London home furniture store, will also have an option agreement to buy the Property at a later date.

Exit Strategy

The Borrower will seek to refinance onto a longer term commercial mortgage, once the new lease to the new tenant is in place and the new rent showing as having passed successfully.

As an alternative, the Borrower will consider selling the Property if an appropriate offer is made.

Lender Risks	Mitigant	Risk Level
The Borrower is not able to successfully execute their business plan.	This should prove an attractive proposition to a new lender approaching maturity on the assumption that the prospective tenant, who would seem to provide a good covenant, occupies the Property as expected. The Borrower has extensive real estate experience, and is borrowing at a reasonable LTV/LTVPV, against a Property situated in a prominent location in London.	Medium
The Borrower stops making monthly interest payments to Lenders due to loss of lease income and or tenants whose leases had ended, had exercised a lease break or have gone into receivership.	The Borrowers are proud of their strong Credit history, including throughout the Covid lockdown periods, and will continue to ensure that this is preserved. Comfort may be further gained by our holding of a six month Interest Reserve.	Medium

The Borrower is unable to repay the loan principal at the end of the loan term because they have not been able to sell or re-finance the property.	As above, the proposed refinance appears to be a realistic exit strategy, provided the tenant takes occupation as expected, other things being equal, prior to maturity. Alternatively, the valuer notes that there should be good demand for the Subject Property, should the Borrower ultimately decide to sell.	Medium
The Property falls in value due to either macroeconomic or property specific reasons	The Property may dip in value at any point throughout the loan term, not least due to wider economic factors, however the Borrower has maintained a sensible LTV, and the gross loan advance equates to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 61% of the OMV figure • 61% of the VPV figure • 68% of the 90-day value. Additionally, the use could readily be changed to Residential, if required, subject to planning.	Low
